Remember the clown—he's always watching for those of you who think you can bid without coming to view.

(Note: The clown is undergoing some maintenance this week, but hopefully he will be back to watch you during viewing. We felt we needed to clean his glass and fix up his frame a little after we found he's selling for $350.00 on Etsy.)

Due to the continuing, ridiculous cost increases at the USPS, we are going to try to go electronic starting with the next auction. If you want a catalog mailed to you in the future —please sign up during viewing week or send me a letter or E-Mail telling me you want a hard copy catalog mailed to you otherwise you will be able to find the catalog on the website and print it out yourself. I will continue to E-Mail you when the catalog is available online.

Viewing week will be from 1 until 6 pm daily, Monday 10 July—Saturday 15 July.

Sunday viewing will continue to be by appointment only for only those of you driving more than 75 miles to get here.

The doors to the auction floor will open at 12:45 on the Sunday the 19th and the Auction will start at 13:30.

Because several of you thought the book auction should be listed in the catalog, we put them in. You will find them numbered as Lots 544 thru 587 and they will be on the bookshelf and front table during viewing. If you want to bid on any of the books (lots 544-587) give one of us your bids during viewing because the floor auction will stop with Lot 543.

The Local Handling Fee remains in effect.: Local shipments to buyers with shipping addresses less than 30.1 miles from the auction floor as the crow flies will pay a Handling Fee of $10.00 plus 5% of the total cost of your order for the convenience of having your items shipped.

Credit Cards are still accepted: There will be 3% fee to cover the processing companies fees.

The Greater Kansas City Stamp Show will be held again on 22 and 23 September 2023.
